2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Santenay 1er Cru Clos de la Comme

Offering up aromas of cherries, sweet red berries and plums mingled with hints of licorice and spices, the 2020 Santenay 1er Cru Clos de la Comme is medium to full-bodied, with tangy acids, powdery tannins and a penetrating finish. It's more structured than the communal-level counterpart, though it remains quite refined.

2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Saint-Romain Perrière

The 2020 Saint-Romain Perrière performs especially well this year, exhibiting aromas of citrus oil, crisp green apple and white flowers, followed by a medium-bodied, elegantly textural palate that's saline and precise. It's well worth seeking out.

2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Saint-Romain Combe Bazin

Notions of rich cherries, berries, loamy soil and bitter chocolate preface the 2020 Saint-Romain Combe Bazin, a medium to full-bodied, lively and refined wine framed by powdery tannins and lively acids. This younger wine bottling is generally the most immediate and in the range, but in the 2020 vintage, it appears to have acquired another dimension of seriousness.

2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Santenay Croix Sorine

A new cuvée from a south-facing site, the 2020 Santenay Croix Sorine delivers aromas of sweet berries, cherries, licorice and loamy soil. Medium to full-bodied, seamless and charming, it's a giving, sensual wine that defies stereotypes of Santenay.

2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Beaune Les Prévôles Perrière

The 2020 Beaune Les Prévôles wafts from the glass with aromas of plum, raw cocoa, apricot and orange rind. Medium to full-bodied, lively and fleshy, with powdery tannins, lively acids and a saline finish, it's a touch closed after its recent bottling, but it will bounce back with style to offer a broad drinking window.

2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Bourgogne Pinot Noir

After a new acquisition, some 50% of the 2020 Bourgogne Pinot Noir now derives from Santenay, complemented by the usual fruit from Saint-Romain and Beaune. Exhibiting notes of sweet berries, plums and forest floor, it's medium-bodied, supple and succulent, with melting tannins and a saline finish.

2020 Henri et Gilles Buisson Corton Grand Cru Le Rognet et Corton

The 2020 Corton Grand Cru Le Rognet et Corton has turned out very well, unwinding in the glass with aromas of dark berries, spices, bitter chocolate, loamy soil and vine smoke. Medium to full-bodied, layered and concentrated, with lively acids, fine, chalky tannins and a long, penetrating finish, it's one of the best reds I've tasted from the Buisson brothers.
